SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

Wallace-Pitts.

A very happy home wedding took place at high noon on Thursday, Jan. 18th at the fine residence of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Wallace, near Shiloh church, when their eldest daughter, Miss Alma, became the bride of Mr. James Twyman Pitts. The beautiful bride was handsomely gowned in a travelling dress of blue cloth trimmed with point lace. To the stirring strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March played on the organ by Miss Lucile Wolff, the wedding party went in procession to the parlor where the marriage service was performed by the Rev. J. M. Dallas, pastor of Friendship Presbyterian church. At the close of the service the young people received the hearty congratulations of their parents and friends. The wedding dinner was served to the bride, groom and guests in the dining room, and was a delicious repast consisting of all the good things of the season. Mrs. Wallace provided a dinner that was a credit to that clever and kind hearted lady. The bride who is very popular with all the people received many handsome presents both useful and ornamental. The groom, Mr. Pitts, is one of our highly esteemed young men, who is widely known for his fine sterling character. The young couple will take up their residence at the old home of the Pitts family in Brewerton, and their many friends look to them to keep up the kind hospitality and traditions that have made that fine old place noted throughout the county.

The marriage of these two young people has brought into relationship two of the oldest and best known families in Laurens county, who were here before the Revolution. Both the young people come of the good old Scotch-Irish race which has done so much for the welfare of South Carolina.

Among those present at the Wallace-Pitts wedding were observed the following: Mr. Clyde Franks, Laurens, Mr. Haddon Wilson, Mr. Willie Wolff, Mr. Thurman Pitts, Miss Lucile Wolff, Miss Bernie Wallace, Miss Minnie Wallace and many other members of the family.

Mr. J. T. Pitts is very well known in Ware Shoals where he is the genial obliging assistant manager of the gin. May he and his fair bride enjoy every happiness.
